

HEALTH, SAFETY, ENVIRONMENT AND ENERGY PLANT POLICY

The plant, in accordance with Barilla Mission “Only one way of doing business: Good for You Good for the Planet”, and in accordance with the standards UNI ISO 14001 and UNI ISO 45001, is committed to operate respecting Employees and Environment.

Reduce risks in the workplace and protect the Environment in order to prevent accidents and pollution;

Minimize the use of water and energy resources, reduce waste and emissions into the atmosphere;

Ensure compliance with legal requirements or otherwise applicable to us;

Ensure continuous improvement of our performance in Safety, Environment and Energy through the research of the best sustainable technologies;

Cover the human and financial resources to achieve our goals;

Involve and train all People of the factory, making them participate in the activities and aware of the impact of their actions.